

Chrysler Group LLC to Showcase Moparized Vehicles in Los Angeles; Company Will Also Demo Industry-first Owner-information Apps and Electronic Vehicle Tracking System (EVTS)

Mopar® Puts Four on the Floor at L.A. Auto Show

November 11, 2010, Auburn Hills, Mich. - Mopar® will be on display in L.A.

Chrysler Group LLC will feature four Moparized vehicles at the upcoming Los Angeles Auto Show, which takes place Nov. 19 - 28 at the Los Angeles Convention Center. Mopar-modified vehicles on display will include Ram 1500, Chrysler Town & Country, Jeep® Wrangler Sahara and the Mopar '10 Challenger. In addition, Mopar will demo industry-first features including owner-information mobile phone apps and its new Electronic Vehicle Tracking System (EVTS).

"Our mission at Mopar is to add value to each one of our brands," said Pietro Gorlier, President and CEO of Mopar, Chrysler Group's service, parts and customer-care brand. "By offering exceptional customer service and proven, quality-tested parts and accessories, we will continue to enhance the customer experience with our brands and vehicles. Mopar now offers more than 20,000 accessories for Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep and Ram vehicles. And when our new Fiat 500 arrives, we will offer even more."

In addition to accessories, Mopar continues to introduce innovative features and service initiatives.

Just last month, the brand launched its industry-first Electronic Vehicle Tracking System (EVTS), an ideal device for fleet owners or concerned parents. If someone drives a vehicle too far or too fast, the system will send the owner a text. And unlike any other vehicle-tracking system, Mopar EVTS offers nationwide tracking without a subscription.

From a service standpoint, Mopar recently expanded its industry-first owner-information mobile phone apps to include 2011 Ram 1500/2500/3500 pickup trucks along with the all-new 2011 Jeep Grand Cherokee. Information that used to be stuffed into the glove box is now available free-of-charge on customer smartphones.

2011 Wrangler Sahara Mopar Edition

Take the iconic Jeep Wrangler, bolt on a bushel of Mopar parts and accessories, and you've got an extreme Moparized off-road machine: the 2011 Wrangler Sahara Mopar Edition.

The Mopar lift augments off-road travel performance for the 2011 Jeep Wrangler Sahara and allows for 35-inch all-terrain tires that can handle whatever the trail dishes out, mounted on sturdy AEV wheels. Further defending the vehicle from the onslaught of the off-road are steel front and rear bumpers. The front bumper includes integrated fog lights to improve visibility in inclement weather; the AEV-designed rear bumper features a tire carrier.

The Mopar/AEV hood provides the proper protection from the debris of the off-road, with a Warn winch at the ready in case of an emergency. The 2011 Jeep Wrangler Sahara can't be missed on the trail with a hardtop and flares that match its fire-red exterior color.

Mopar '10

For the first time in its history, Chrysler Group LLC has launched a special-edition Mopar version of one of its vehicles.

Mopar and Dodge collaborated to create Mopar '10, a Mopar-modified 2010 Dodge Challenger R/T. Under-the-hood features include the legendary 5.7-liter HEMI[®] V-8 engine, a hood-venting system, a cold-air intake, a front strut tower brace with shock caps, and a unique engine cover. Under the decklid is a rear strut-tower brace that stiffens the chassis and improves handling characteristics of the car.

Mopar '10 is available in Brilliant Black with a choice of three accent colors: Mopar Blue, Red or Silver. Accent colors will appear on side stripes as well as in the stitching on the steering wheel and seats. Exterior features include 20-inch forged heritage gloss-black wheels, black-chromed grille surround, and a functional, vented T/A-style hood with vintage hood pins. Mopar logos and graphics are prominent on the front fascia, hood, hood-pin caps, body-side stripes, windows and on the chromed fuel door. A special Mopar '10 cover also comes with the vehicle.

Interior features include Katzkin leather seating, custom leather-wrapped steering wheel with baseball-style stitching, Mopar shift handles (T-handle for automatics, pistol grip for manuals), a serialized dash plaque with a Mopar '10 logo, and Mopar branding throughout.

The U.S. Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price (MSRP) for Mopar '10 is $38,000 for an automatic transmission and $39,000 for a manual transmission. Both prices include $750 for destination.

About the Mopar Brand

Mopar is Chrysler Group LLC's service, parts and customer-care brand.

Mopar distributes approximately 280,000 parts and accessories in more than 90 countries and is the source for all original-equipment parts for Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep and Ram Truck vehicles. Mopar parts are unique in that they are engineered and tested with the same teams that create factory-authorized vehicle specifications for Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep and Ram Truck vehicles - a direct connection that no other aftermarket parts company can provide. A complete list of Mopar accessories and performance parts is available at www.mopar.com.

More than 70 Years of Mopar

When Chrysler bought Dodge in 1928, the need for a dedicated parts manufacturer, supplier and distribution system to support the growing enterprise led to the formation of the Chrysler Motor Parts Corporation (CMPC) in 1929.

Mopar (a simple contraction of the words Motor and PARTs) was trademarked for a line of antifreeze products in 1937. It also was widely used as a moniker for the CMPC. The Mopar brand made its mark in the 1960s - the muscle-car era. The Chrysler Corporation built race-ready Dodge and Plymouth "package cars" equipped with special high-performance parts. Mopar carried a line of "special parts" for super stock drag racers and developed its racing parts division called Mopar Performance Parts to enhance speed and handling for both road and racing use.
