December 2, 2016, Los Angeles - FCA US California Business Center will help deliver a little holiday cheer for underprivileged children in Southern California as the presenting sponsor of the Motor4Toys Charity Car Show and Toy Drive.

The event, now in its 13th year, has a mission to bring the automotive enthusiast community together for the holidays to collect as many toys as possible for less-fortunate children. The event takes place as part of Supercar Sunday, a weekly gathering of automotive enthusiasts in Woodland Hills, California.

"If you are a car enthusiast, Southern California is the place to be on the first Sunday in December," Jeff Eschenbach, Director of the California Business Center, said. "We are proud to support and be part of this great cause, and help less-fortunate children in Southern California."

"We truly appreciate the support of the FCA US California Business Center," Dustin Troyan, president and founder of Motor4Toys, said. "To have a global brand engaged at a grassroots level to support Motor4Toys is unbelievable. This would not be possible without the incredible car community coming together, and I am honored and grateful to be part of it."

All car enthusiasts and the general public are invited to admire the cars from early morning until midday. Admission is only the donation of at least one new, unwrapped toy with a value of $10 or more. All toys will be distributed by Southern California charities during the coming holiday season.
