November 5, 2019, Auburn Hills, Mich. - This Veterans Day, the Jeep® brand, with Purple Heart recipient and U.S. Army veteran Noah Galloway, celebrates the veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces with the launch of the “Jeep® Gladiator to Gladiator” digital and social contest, giving consumers an opportunity to nominate one veteran for a chance to win an all-new 2020 Jeep Gladiator Rubicon.

To enter, participants must submit a personal 60-second (or less) video explaining why the veteran of their choice is a “Gladiator” in their life. The video will be judged by the Jeep brand, with Galloway, who will choose the winner. Submissions will be accepted Tuesday, November 5 through Thursday, November 30 at jeepgladiatortogladiator.com. The winner will be announced in early December.

“The Jeep brand's long-standing legacy of supporting our armed forces goes back nearly 80 years,” said Jim Morrison, Head of Jeep Brand – FCA North America. “This year, with Purple Heart recipient and combat veteran Noah Galloway, we wanted to find a way to honor those who have selflessly served our country. Our ‘Gladiator to Gladiator’ initiative gives our Jeep brand fans and followers the opportunity to acknowledge the veterans in their lives and give one the chance to take home an all-new 2020 Jeep Gladiator Rubicon.”

Consumers can learn more details about the “Jeep Gladiator to Gladiator” contest and how to enter by watching this video featuring Galloway and by visiting jeepgladiatortogladiator.com.

This is the Jeep brand's second collaboration with Galloway this year; they teamed up last April to launch the “Find Your Freedom” contest.
