April 23, 2021, Auburn Hills, Mich. - The Ram Truck brand is immersing itself in the spring commercial truck season sales event that offers special incentives on the highly capable Ram Commercial lineup of trucks and vans with a brand-new advertising campaign, "Giants." The multimedia campaign salutes American working-class heroes and pays tribute to small businesses that are mobilizing by serving communities.

"Our new Ram 'Giants' campaign reinforces the full lineup of Ram Commercial vehicles, purpose-built to support and improve the productivity of businesses everywhere," said Marissa Hunter, Vice President, Marketing - North America, Stellantis. "At a time when this country's skilled tradespeople and business owners are demonstrating extraordinary fortitude, delivering this compelling message of strength, resilience and courage is our way of paying tribute to the hardworking and heroic American workforce."

The campaign focuses on the determination of the working class and the role they play in shaping the nation's future. Recognizing these tireless tradespeople as giants, each spot reminds viewers that it is American working-class heroes and small business owners who feed the land that keeps us fed and who deliver the goods and supply the demand, and to not forget that it is the dreamers who are the builders that will dig us out and build the future.

The campaign spans across broadcast, digital and social media, including Ram brand's official YouTube, Facebook, Instagram and Twitter channels with two, new, 30-second broadcast spots that focus on Ram work trucks and ProMaster vans.
