It's easy and quick to find and download broadcast quality video from the Chrysler Media Website.

Here are the steps:

1. Log onto <http://media.chrysler.com>
2. Click on "Video" in the colored box to the right of the large photo on the site's homepage.
3. A number of channels will appear on the screen. Within those categories are individual clips available for download.
4. For plant b-roll, click on the "manufacturing" channel. For product b-roll, choose the brand or model for the vehicle in which you're interested. For Chrysler World Headquarters and Chrysler Technical Center, and top executives, click on "Chrysler LLC." There is also video of our top executives under the categories for the major auto shows.
5. You can preview a clip before downloading by simply clicking on it. If you'd like that clip, follow the instructions for downloading to the right of the clip.
6. When you attempt to download you will be asked to either log in, if you're already registered, or to register. It takes just a minute.
7. Once you receive a confirmation email that your registration has been activated, you can continue to download the desired clips.
